Are you looking to develop Spiritually and embrace the sacredness of Mediumship? Would you like to develop your own ability to connect with the Spirit World in a safe non-competitive environment?

In this series of virtual interactive classes students experience lecture format, visual presentations, practical exercises with individualized coaching to help them understand and practice the sacred work of mediumship on church platforms and one-on-one private readings. These classes create a safe environment for everyone to develop at their own pace. The instructors work in tandem to understand individual student needs and address them, encouraging the student to develop in their own unique way and establish a deep connection to Spirit. As part of the student's deepening awareness of Spirit they will experience integrated aspects of mediumistic development. See website for complete list.

This class is not listed in the MPI Course Catalog. For more information: <http://www.morrispratt.org/online-education>

How to Deliver a Good Sermon/Lecture

A good sermon does not teach; it inspires and lifts congregants with inspiration and challenges thought provoking circumstances that will enhance the life of those in the congregation.

Communication Skills: Speaking Clearly and Active Listening Skills

Communication skills will be presented teaching the student to make meaning for the person who comes to them for counseling. The student will learn what key words are important and how to document conversations.

What is a Pastor, Pastoral Care and Pastoral Authority?

What qualities make a good pastor?

What are the two parts to Pastoral Care and why is it important?

What is Pastoral Authority?

The answer is disclosed in this portion of the class.

This is a required class for MPI students enrolled in Ministerial Skills/Ministerial. For more information: <http://www.morrispratt.org/online-education> Registration form: <http://www.morrispratt.org/documents-forms/>
